10 The Wythall Directory

The personal approach

Experience the difference for yourself with your local property professional Louise Lane.

I've been helping people buy and sell their homes in Wythall and Hollywood for over 22 years. I have a real love of the area and like so many local residents I feel truly blessed to live here, surrounded by beautiful countryside and great neighbours.

I live in Hollywood with my husband Glenn and our three doas. Over the uears we've made areat friends in the area and simplu love where we live. The local communitu is really important to me and so, along with my husband Glenn, we aet involved with the local events and charities, such as the Wuthall Witch Walk and Teddy Bear's picnic and we've even got dressed up as Father & Mother Christmas to support a local event! Our three dogs are big fans of the area too – they love the local parks, fields, and country lanes that surround us – so much so that we can't always get them to come home!

My local reputation is important to me and so I go the extra mile for my customers – making sure they find the best property for them, helping them to achieve the best asking price, and making sure the sales process moves along efficiently. While some things may be outside of my control, I always keep my customers updated, and they know they can contact me whenever they need, and that I will get back to them.

So if you've got a property to sell in Hollywood or Wythall, or would simply like to find out how much your property is worth, please get in touch – I'd love to hear from you.

Fixed Fee Divorce

and Collaborative Law

Fixed Fee Divorce

Wallace Robinson & Morgan solicitors are pleased to be able to offer a fixed fee divorce package for all work in connection with obtaining your divorce. This will include preparing the divorce petition and other necessary documentation, liaising with you, your partner and the Court and applying for the two Decrees required to finalise the divorce. Please contact us to discuss your individual circumstances so that we can give you details of our fixed fees and any other costs involved. Please note that our fixed fee offer is subject to the divorce being undefended and without any unforeseen complications. It excludes work done in relation to the finances or any children.

Collaborative Law

Wallace Robinson & Morgan also offer an innovative new approach to resolving family matters. We believe that, in the majority of cases, the best and most amicable solutions are those agreed between the couples themselves. Collaborative Law allows couples to meet face to face, with the support of their respective solicitors, and discuss their views and suggestions for resolving the matter. This enables couples to reach agreement without the need for costly, stressful and time-consuming Court battles. Everyone in the room has the common goal of finding the best solution for the couple and their family.

Collaborative Law has numerous benefits: participants still have their own independent legal advisor but maintain control without being threatened by Court proceedings. The couple set the agenda for each meeting, enabling them to discuss the issues that matter most to them and their family. Furthermore, it is crucial for a harmonious future relationship, particularly when children are involved, to maintain communication between the parties, and Collaborative Law ensures this is achieved.

Dipika Mistry and Kathryn Ferris Wallace Robinson & Morgan Family Lawyers

Our specialist family lawyers can advise you as to whether these agreements are right for you.

Head of the Family Law department, Kathryn Ferris is a qualified Collaborative Family Lawyer and offers the benefits of this revolutionary approach to her clients. Dipika Mistry, is an accredited Law Society Family Law solicitor. Kathryn and Dipika are both members of "Resolution," an organisation that promotes constructive, non-confrontational methods to resolve family issues.

If you would like to discuss any family law issue, our fixed fee divorce offer or find out more about the Collaborative approach, please contact us.

Keeps the doldrums away.

During a busy working week do you manage to carve out any time just for you? Or maybe you're recently retired after a busy working life and finding it difficult to fill those empty hours. It's time to invoke the power of the hobby.

My dictionary defines 'hobby' as 'an activity or interest pursued for leisure or relaxation and not as a main occupation.'

There have been many scientific studies over the years which show that people who participate regularly in hobbies live longer, healthier lives. This beneficial effect seems to be independent of other factors such as general health or how wealthy you are.

In psychology-speak, hobbies are, a modern expression of suppressed primordial instincts!

What this means is that we are essentially pack animals and that we like to belong to a group or a tribe, even those of us who consider ourselves loners. Think about it for a second. Many hobbies do involve belonging to a specific social group or club, with rules and structure: golf, football, train spotters etc. Even anti-social people often spend hours gaming on their pc with other gamers or blogging to other like-minded folk.

However, there's more to a hobby than belonging. Hobbies allow us to tap into two qualities which are fundamentally human. The first is our capacity for imagination. Whether we're creating something beautiful, like a quilt, or painting, or designing a new layout for our train set, or planning a route for a hillwalking weekend, it's our imagination which is key to the final outcome. The second quality is our need to drive forward or push boundaries. Whatever our hobby, we're always striving for improvement: can we obtain that particularly rare stamp; can we climb a higher mountain; can we take a better photograph?

While we're using our imaginations or pushing ourselves that bit further, our hobby acts as a release valve for the stresses of modern life. It's difficult to worry about your boss or the household bills while you knit, play guitar or swim.

So where do you start when choosing a hobby? There is an old saying that everyone ought to have three hobbies: an intellectual one; a physical one and a spiritual one.

Modern life doesn't leave much time for three hobbies but it's still a good starting point and some hobbies can combine two or even all three of those desirable attributes. Bird watching, for instance combines intellectual and physical, as you'll learn about birds and get out and about to find them. Yoga combines physical and spiritual attributes. Get creative: make a list of things which interest you and design your hobby to fit your lifestyle. You never know what you might achieve.
