Fixed Fee Divorce

and Collaborative Law

Fixed Fee Divorce

Wallace Robinson & Morgan solicitors are pleased to be able to offer a fixed fee divorce package for all work in connection with obtaining your divorce. This will include preparing the divorce petition and other necessary documentation, liaising with you, your partner and the Court and applying for the two Decrees required to finalise the divorce. Please contact us to discuss your individual circumstances so that we can give you details of our fixed fees and any other costs involved. Please note that our fixed fee offer is subject to the divorce being undefended and without any unforeseen complications. It excludes work done in relation to the finances or any children.

Collaborative Law

Wallace Robinson & Morgan also offer an innovative new approach to resolving family matters. We believe that, in the majority of cases, the best and most amicable solutions are those agreed between the couples themselves. Collaborative Law allows couples to meet face to face, with the support of their respective solicitors, and discuss their views and suggestions for resolving the matter. This enables couples to reach agreement without the need for costly, stressful and time-consuming Court battles. Everyone in the room has the common goal of finding the best solution for the couple and their family.

Collaborative Law has numerous benefits: participants still have their own independent legal advisor but maintain control without being threatened by Court proceedings. The couple set the agenda for each meeting, enabling them to discuss the issues that matter most to them and their family. Furthermore, it is crucial for a harmonious future relationship, particularly when children are involved, to maintain communication between the parties, and Collaborative Law ensures this is achieved.

Dipika Mistry and Kathryn Ferris Wallace Robinson & Morgan Family Lawyers

Our specialist family lawyers can advise you as to whether these agreements are right for you.

Head of the Family Law department, Kathryn Ferris is a qualified Collaborative Family Lawyer and offers the benefits of this revolutionary approach to her clients. Dipika Mistry, is an accredited Law Society Family Law solicitor. Kathryn and Dipika are both members of "Resolution," an organisation that promotes constructive, non-confrontational methods to resolve family issues.

If you would like to discuss any family law issue, our fixed fee divorce offer or find out more about the Collaborative approach, please contact us.

A brief history of cider...and a cider cocktail.

Apple trees have been cultivated since around the 5th century AD and cider, or something similar, seems to have been around for almost as long, although sometimes it was known as apple wine.

It was brought to Britain by the Normans in around 1100 AD. Cider was originally a drink for the poor. Ale was made from malted barley and using grain for alcohol could mean going without bread.

It was drunk instead of water because water at that time was often not safe to drink.

The first settlers in America planted lots of apple trees simply so they could continue to make cider to drink.

Originally it was made by crushing apples in a trough, until John Worlidge produced a special apple-mill in 1676.

The best English cider is cask-conditioned; dry, fruity and with low carbonation.

Normandy cider is sweeter and more effervescent with a complex taste. Both are perfect for consumption, chilled, on a warm summer evening.

While a simple cider over ice is hard to beat, a cider sangria can take the drink to another level. Colourful, cold, fresh and fruity, it's perfect for sharing with friends on a summer evening.

Pour a bottle of dry white wine into a large jug – Pinot Grigio is perfect.

Add 250ml lemonade, 125ml lime juice, a large handful of mint, and plenty of sliced strawberries, and orange and lime slices.

Chill out for at least 15 minutes so the fruit infuses the drink and vice versa. Just before serving, add loads of ice and two bottles of your favourite cider.
